

A High School Youth Minister

Deanery C is looking for a “quarter time” (10 hours a week) high school youth minister who is passionate about sharing their Catholic faith.

Who is Deanery C? Deanery C encompasses parishes located in Albuquerque’s south valley and a few parishes that are located just north of Central Ave. Deanery C is a multicultural unique tapestry with a wide expanse of customs, traditions, and languages spoken. Its parishes include, San Felipe, St. Anne, Immaculate Conception, Holy Rosary, St. Edwin, St. Francis Xavier, San Ignacio, Holy Family, San Martin de Porres, Sacred Heart, San Jose, Church of the Ascension, and St. Augustine (Isleta Pueblo).

What is our Mission? Our mission is to create a deanery wide high school youth ministry where regional parishes collaboratively sponsor a program that provides regular opportunities for Christian fellowship, service, and worship that value and incorporate the rich tapestry of customs, traditions, and languages found within Deanery C parishes. It is important to note that this does not replace or involve current religious education programs at parishes

Definition of Youth: High School (Freshmen, Sophomores Juniors and Seniors)

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan, facilitate, and implement an activity on a monthly basis youth ministry opportunities in the areas of fellowship, worship and service
- Continue to work with an already established core group of high school youth
- Communicate and collaborate with Deanery C parish staff, clergy and families
- Manage event logistics working within a budget
- Work with youth ministers of the various parishes

Qualifications:

- Practicing Catholic with a love for the Lord and an excitement for working with young people
- Organizational computer, communication and leadership skills
- Although this position is primarily working from home, it also requires the ability to work some evenings, weekends and attendance at some meetings
- Computer literate in office programs, home internet and own computer

How to apply: Interested individuals can submit a letter of interest, resume to include references or letter(s) of recommendation and job application to srosera@asfnm.org
Applications will be accepted through May 31st

Visit the following link or QR code for specific information and job application form:

<https://www.abqdeaneryc.org/employment>

